

DAY 1

Friday, 18th March

- 10.05 TVERC: FOUR MILLION RECORDS AND COUNTING
Henrietta Pringle, TVERC Biological Recording Co-ordinator
- 10.25 HEDGEHOG STREET: COMMUNITY CONSERVATION IN ACTION
Grace Johnson, Hedgehog Street Project Officer
- 10.55 THE LOWER WINDRUSH VALLEY PROJECT
Lucy Kennery, Lower Windrush Valley Project Manager
- 11.20 BREAK
- 11.35 NATURE RECOVERY: NETWORKING FROM THE BOTTOM UP
Kevan Martin and Catriona Bass, Eynsham Nature Recovery Network
- 12.05 SPEED UPDATE SESSION - UPDATES FROM OUR RECENT INTAKE OF MICRO-INTERNS:
- Jonathan Rutter - "Butterfly Strongholds and Local Conservation Potential"
  - Harri Ravenscroft - "Butterfly Blues: Mapping Distribution and Abundance Through Time"
  - Katie Jones - "Distributions of Three Butterfly species and their Food Plants"
- 12.25 DISCUSSION
Reaching the next million: An opportunity to discuss the needs of the recording community and how TVERC can support local groups and individuals with their monitoring.

DAY 2

Saturday, 19th March

- 10.05     ASTON'S EYOT - LIFE ON THE DUMP
Ruth Ashcroft, co-chair of Friends of Aston's Eyot
- 10.35     IMPROVING BIODIVERSITY ON THE LETCOMBE BROOK, A RARE OXFORDSHIRE CHALKSTREAM
Mark Bradfield, Friends of Letcombe Brook
- 11.00     RECORDING AND MAPPING MOTHS IN THE TVERC REGION
Martin Harvey, Berkshire county moth recorder
- 11.30     BREAK
- 11.45     SPEED UPDATE SESSION:
- Dakota Reid, TVERC volunteer - "Mapping the distributions of Drab Looper, Drinker and Lackey Moths in Vice County 22"
  - Tom Hollier, TVERC volunteer - "Student led meadow creation"
- 12.05     THE RIDGEWAY PROJECT
Sarah Wright, The Ridgeway National Trail Project Officer and Julie Kerans, TVERC Oxfordshire Biodiversity Officer